

Stella Point Capital Appoints Ryan Hunter as Principal

NEW YORK (June 19, 2017)—Stella Point Capital (Stella Point), a New York -based private equity firm focused on industrial, consumer, and business services investments, today announced the appointment of Ryan Hunter, former Senior Vice President of Moelis & Company, as Principal, effective immediately.

Adam Godfrey and Justin Wender, Managing Partners and Co-Founders of Stella Point Capital, said “We are delighted to appoint Ryan to the role of Principal, and are confident that his financial aptitude and unique experience will serve as a tremendous asset to all aspects of our firm. We’ve known Ryan for many years and welcome him to the Stella Point team.”

Mr. Hunter said, “I am thrilled to be joining Adam, Justin and the Stella Point team as we continue to build upon the incredible foundation that exists today. Stella Point’s investment approach touches on a number of core principals with which I identify, and I look forward to working with our talented team as we continue to invest in new opportunities.”

Before joining Stella Point, Mr. Hunter spent seven years with Moelis & Company, originally advising clients in the Industrial and Consumer industries. He was most recently a Senior Vice President in the Gaming & Lodging Group, where he executed numerous transactions for the firm while also performing a number of other functions, including deal sourcing. Prior to joining Moelis & Company, Mr. Hunter was Co- Head of Global Investment Strategy for Strategic Capital Allocation Group, an investment advisory firm which advised on over $2 billion of client assets for endowments, foundations and ultra-high net worth individuals. Mr. Hunter holds his M.B.A. from Columbia Business School, and his B.S. in Finance from Lehigh University.
